

CAREERS

Responsible Research is a responsible and equal opportunity employer. We provide a supportive and flexible working environment with the option for working from home. Please send your resume and a covering e-mail if you would like to be considered as either a full time employee or a consultant partner. info@responsibleresearch.com

Research Director

To be based in Singapore. With experience of building substantial qualitative and quantitative research capacity in an investment environment, preferably in Asia. Will be responsible for coordinating the research product.

Must be able to:

- Be a spokesperson for the Group at Conferences and Events
- Research, analyse and monitor ESG issues within Asian companies
- Produce sector studies on assigned sectors and related RI issue
- Plan, arrange, carry out and report on engagement with companies;
- Assist in screening and other supporting work for the ethical funds;
- Provide information for marketing of RI and ethical products and client presentations;

As well as having a real passion and enthusiasm for the SRI/ESG sector, a successful candidate will have:

- Experience in Responsible Investment research and engagement
- Sound understanding of financial markets and a business environment
- Ability to develop and manage projects and work load on one's own in a resource constrained environment
- Database management and quant skills
- Excellent research and written communication skills

Responsible Investment Analyst (Greater China)

To be based in HK, Shanghai or Beijing. Preferably holding CFA or MBA and having deep financial analytical background and recent experience in one or more of the following areas:

- Governance and Ethical Business Practices
- Social and Human Rights Issues
- General Environmental Issues in Asia
- Climate Change, Carbon and Alternative Energy

Junior Responsible Investment Analysts

To be based in Asia. Graduates with some financial experience and a passion for RI to assist the RI analysts in their ESG research on Asian corporates.

Korean Speaking Intern

We have an opening for a Korean speaking intern to assist on a high profile project covering ESG integration within South Korean corporates. The internship could be based in Seoul, HK or Singapore and should have financial analytical experience and be looking to enter the field of Responsible Investment or public policy.

Part Time Business Development Manager (Asia) - RepRisk® Tool

This role would suit someone who is highly motivated, sales oriented and prefers a very flexible role. The candidate should have a deep understanding of institutional asset management and investment products, perhaps having recently "retired" from the investment banking world! Knowledge of socially responsible investment or CSR would also be a plus.

RESPONSIBLE RESEARCH

ENVIRONMENT | SOCIAL | GOVERNANCE

We offer a generous commission-based package for the right candidate who wishes to work from home but enjoy a high earning potential for results be part of the growing movement of SRI and ethical investment. Candidates should have excellent telephone and e-mail communication skills and be self-motivated and independent.

Institutional Responsible Investment Sales - Part Time (UK, US, Asia)

Preferably with experience of selling institutional equity research to pension funds and hedge funds. This position would suit someone with an interest in socially responsible investment and sustainable business models who has worked at a senior level in banking or investment consultancy for 10+ years. We offer a commission based package for the right candidate who wishes to work from home but enjoy a high earning potential keep travel to a minimum be part of the growing movement of SRI and ethical investment keep hours flexible. Candidates should have excellent telephone and e-mail communication skills and be self-motivated and independent. An academic background is a plus, as is working experience in environmental sciences, human rights or corporate governance. Proficiency in the main European languages would also be useful.

Interns

To be based in Asia. Graduates or MBA students with some financial experience and a passion for Responsible Investment to assist the RI analysts in their ESG research on Asian corporates or work on specific sector projects. We are specifically interested in MBA or Masters graduates who have a particular sector focus e.g. forestry, shipping or telecoms and who wish to conduct ESG research as part of an MBA or post-graduate work.

Click here to submit your CV and apply for a position at Responsible Research.